

This is Dianne Lyda, head coach from Carroll High School in Fort Wayne. I am the coordinator for a Bronze Coaching Seminar for anyone that is currently a Level One and would like to advance to a Bronze Level. It will be held Saturday and Sunday, August 5 & 6, 2017 at Crazy Pinz in Fort Wayne. The cost will be $295. They can circle the date and budget or start saving for it.

There is also an opportunity for a current coach to talk to their bowling alley about setting up a FREE 3 hour seminar from USA Bowling. Anyone who attends this free seminar is then eligible to take the online USBC Level One course for free instead of having to pay the usual $49 fee. Thought this was a great chance to help some of the coaches improve!

I am sending you a link to the USA Bowling Site page that explains it. To ask for the free one that will be given sometime after March, they must register and request it before December 30. The registration form is on page 2, so just scroll down. It also shows the prices should they want to have one at another time. Not every site will likely be chosen for the free one but they have so many available and they have only 20 slots filled so far.

I thought the more Level Ones we have, the better chances we have of getting a few more people to attend the Bronze one that I will be coordinating in August 2017.
