Breakdown of Schedule:

Event Registration:

- Location: Front Entrance Lobby
- Bowlers and coaches will be greeted by RecruitUS staff and volunteers at the registration tables. Bowlers will receive a free event t-shirt they will be asked to wear during the event and will be given a designated lane assignment. Bowlers will also receive sponsor giveaways from High 5 Gear and ViQing Gear. All bowling equipment will be stored in the banquet room which will serve as the event paddock area. Coaches will receive an event sheet with information on all competing bowler's before being directed to their vendor station.

Open House:

- Location: Concourse
- Coaches will be stationed at vendor tables around the concourse in alphabetical order in which players and their families will have the opportunity to meet and interact with the coaches.

Welcoming Session

- Location: Concourse & Lanes
- RecruitUS President Kenneth DeGraaf will welcome athletes and coaches to the event and will give a background on the RecruitUS organization and format for the day. A TBA guest speaker with recent collegiate bowling experience will talk to the athletes about their time in college and how to best prepare for the moments ahead.

Bowling Tournament

- Location: Lanes 1-50
- Following 15 minutes of practice, players will compete in a four-game totals tournament while being watched by collegiate coaches. Standings will be decided by total pin-fall in a separate boys and girls division. The top-finisher on both sides will receive scholarship funds and a championship jersey presented by High 5 Gear.

Recruitment Meetings

- Location: Concourse
- Following the tournament, bowlers will have the opportunity to sit down with the collegiate bowling programs they are interested in and discuss potential scholarship and recruitment opportunities with coaches.
